

General Information and Rules

The Dorchester Center for the Arts' Annual Photography Show is open to the public. The show is judged and each photographer may enter up to three works. Please number your submissions in order of preference, in the unlikely event that we run out of space for hanging. Work must be original and never before shown at DCA.

All photographs must be either gallery wrapped or matted and framed, and properly wired (ready to hang). The maximum size is 30" in either direction including the frame.

You may provide a "back story" for your photo(s). Send them to jjones@dorchesterarts.org, or include them on a separate sheet with your Registration Form. We will take care of formatting and printing them.

Digitally altered photos and photo collages are acceptable. If you have done extensive alterations (e.g., adding something to or subtracting something from the photo), please make a note of that on the Registration Forms and Labels. Basic editing (cropping, color correction, adjusting contrast, etc.) doesn't count as digital alteration here.

Judging is based on the following criteria: quality of photograph, originality, composition, and overall presentation. Cash awards will be presented at the Awards Ceremony on Saturday, October 8 in each of the three divisions (see below) and for Best Local Treasure (Eastern Shore). In addition, a DCA Gift Certificate will be presented for Best in Show, and ribbons will be awarded for People's Choice and honorable mentions.

DCA reserves the right to reject any work. All entered works must remain on display through the end of the show (November 12) except for sales to out-of-town buyers.
